

Peppy Pals Character Bio

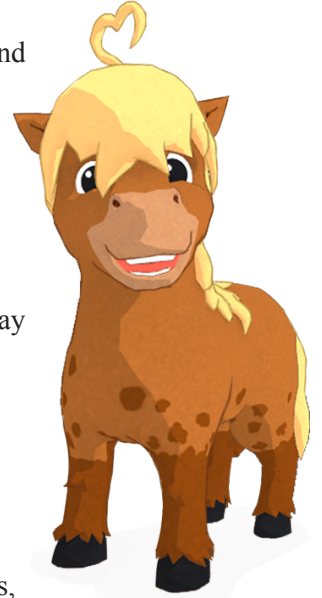

Reggy the Dog

The dog Reggy is a very loyal friend who always means well, and is driven by curiosity to go on adventures and try new things. Going out into the world with such great enthusiasm means that sometimes, Reggy starts acting before thinking, and ends up in tricky or frightening situations. This well-meaning puppy reminds us that “you live and you learn”.

Sammy the Horse

Even though Sammy is tall and strong, this easygoing horse tends to stay quiet and away from the center of attention. Being a little introvert means Sammy doesn't always pay attention to everything and everyone in a situation, but as with all of us there's more than meets the eye, and Sammy is in fact a very diplomatic friend and a good listener.

Gabby the Rabbit

Gabby is a little shy and a bit more sensitive than the other pals, but at the same time, this kind-hearted bunny is most often the first to notice when something's wrong with someone else. Strong emotions also goes both ways, as Gabby's warm and pure joy tends to bring the group together. After all, what are emotions if we cannot show them to one another?

Izzy the Owl

With strong opinions and an eccentric temperament, Izzy wants certain things to be done in a certain way, and you'll know for sure when they're not. Whilst this leads to Izzy disagreeing with a friend sometimes, or lacking a sense of humor, you can be sure that when this quirky owl is around, you're going to have an exciting time, and all the pals would agree that Izzy is a very wise and thoughtful friend to have.

Kelly the Cat

Kelly takes pride in being the quite, mindful and cool cat, and doesn't show as much emotions as the other pals. Since Kelly also likes to spend much of her time alone, you might think this kitty doesn't like the others, but actually, it's just who Kelly is. Luckily, the friends know this and are always happy when Kelly shows up to play, and know that there's depth to every pal's personality that only friendship can reveal.
